

Mentoring to transform lives

We are delighted to be hosting this Mentor Training day.

When: Saturday 3rd March 2012

Time: 9.45 for Coffee. Start 10am and finish 4pm

Where: Bridgnorth Baptist Church, West Castle Street, Bridgnorth WV16 4AB

With trainers: Sharon Prior and Paul Wilcox

Sharon Prior is a freelance trainer, leadership coach and mentor. She lectures in several Bible colleges in England on youth work, mentoring and leadership courses, helping students to be more effective in their work for God.

Paul Wilcox is part of the Leadership Team at All Saints, Worcester, but most of his time is spent mentoring leaders, emerging leaders and those just trying to hold life together. He is also a lecturer at Cliff College on mentoring, coaching and leadership.

Cost: £25.00 (Cheques to be made out to Bridgnorth Crusader Group)
Includes lunch, refreshments and training materials

Intentional mentoring relationships can make all the difference to your work and ministry. This training day is for all those involved in working with children, young people and adults. It will equip you to find a mentor and be a mentor to others. The day will explore what mentoring is and how people benefit, the key skills required in mentoring and how to set up effective mentoring relationships. If you influence, advise or guide others, then this day is for you.

How do I book in?

Contact Abigail Batten on 01746 218313 or email: Abigail.batten@gmail.com

There is no parking at the church, Suitable parking for the day can be found at the Innage Car park or Listley Street Car park. Please allow time to walk to the church.(10mins). Limited disabled parking is available but please contact Abigail Batten.
